

Welcome Chil-hué

We are fortunate to be in one of the most unspoiled and pristine parts of the Island of Chiloé.

WHAT WE PROVIDE

Fresh towels and linens provided.

Water filter is provided however water is completely safe for drinking. It comes from a lovely spring.

Coffee and tea

HOUSE RULES

No smoking

No parties or events

Please keep noise down (specially at night) level it upsets all the living beings not just human beings.

Let's be good to each other and be kind & respectful to one another and nature. You are coming to a special place and we are happy you have chosen to come here.

Check in

Check in time is from 3pm to 8 pm. Please message or communicate with Sandra via the number above if you are going to arrive earlier and we may be able to accommodate you. Also let us know if you need any more help with getting here. The final 250 meters is a little more complicated however is fine with a high 4x2 vehicle but NOT a low car.

Getting to Chil-hue

ADDRESS

Lechagua Rural s/n
Ancud, Chiloé

Depart Ancud on the only paved road that goes around the Bay (W-20). Only 6.4 kms to the west there is a turn off (with sign) on your right (in the curve on your way down the only hill 6 km from town) that takes you 800 meters on a gravel road down to the beach level where Chil-hue is located.

Surrounded by quiet and tranquil views.

Meals

We can provide different types of meals according to availability of fresh ingredients we grow and can get from our neighboring farms and fishermen. We also get fresh produce from the trusted providers at the local market.
